PRICE FIVE CENTS

IND FIVE OF FEAR MISSING BURIED MEN ALIVE

escued From Briceville, Tenn. Mine After Sixty Hours Imprisonment

WALL HOPE FOR OTHERS
even if Some Still Survive
They Probably Will Starve
Before Liberated

BRICEVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 11.—Five men had been brought alive from the Mountain mine at 11 o'clock tonight and rescuers at that time were making strong efforts to reach at least two more whom they believe still are alive. The men have been prisoners of the workings since Saturday morning, when an explosion entombed more than 100 men, some of whom had been abandoned, when tonight five in all were found behind brattice, they had erected to protect themselves from noxious gases.

They are:
William Henderson, aged 37.
Milton Henderson, aged 22, his son.
Irwin Smith, aged 35.
Arthur Scott, aged 30.
Dorothy Irish, aged 30.
They are all married and their wives had almost given up hope.

Fought Off Black Damp.
Immediately after the explosion the men rushed to cross-entry No. 19, where they quickly threw up a barrier that kept out the black damp that had many of their fellow workers. They took their lunch pails with them, and the five subsisted for three days on two nights on what they expected would be their Saturday noon meal. News that miners had been found in the mine spread quickly through the town and relatives of other men, who had been standing vigil at the mine's mouth until all hope was gone, rushed in to the scene.

Until tonight 22 bodies had been recovered and but 29 cross-entries had been explored. The rescuers are encountering great obstacles in penetrating the cross-entries and it is feared that should more be alive in the far recesses of the workings it will be impossible to reach them before they starve.

Another rescue party arrived from Resburg today, so there are plenty of men on the scene. Finding the five men tonight revived an unquenched hope in the breasts of those who are now pushing the work as fast as possible, hoping to find more men alive. The work is being done by Dr. J. Hollas, chief of government bureau of mines.

New Cemetery for Victims.
A new cemetery is being provided for the victims. It is on a hill near a mouth of the mine and today the names of the victims are being placed in a circle in the center of which it is expected a monument will be raised. All afternoon grave diggers worked in a rain at changing the streets of the hamlet to mud puddles and added to the gloom of the inhabitants.

Many theories are advanced as to the cause of the accident. President of the Knoxville Iron company, which owns the mine, said today it had probably been caused by wind shot. This might have ignited gas accumulated in one of the mine's rooms in the mine or might have struck coal dust on the floor. The cause is supposed to be kept in the hands of the government bureau of mines.

The coal company is supplying the immediate needs of the stricken families, but later money will be needed to care of the widows and orphans. Applications are that there will be more than 50 of the former and about 100 of the latter.

OUTRAGE ROBBERY CONFOUNDS POLICE

Police are apparently at a loss to solve a case which would lead them to persons who entered the Outrage cleaning establishment Saturday and stole $2,500 worth of clothing. No arrests have been made, the robbery gives indication of being a duplicate of the many which have been reported to the police within the last few weeks. In each case the robbers of the invaders were covered to such an extent that the activities of the police were valueless.

At the Outrage establishment, a number of evening dresses, costly morning suits, men's dress suits and other articles of wearing apparel were taken. Many of the dresses were taken from the dressing room, which was given by society residents of this section for the benefit of the Outrage club. Mr. Outrage has offered a reward for the arrest of the persons who committed the robbery.

NO EVIDENCE TO CONVICT DARROW DELHI OVERRUN WITH VISITORS

District Attorney Admits This When Name Is Mentioned
at Bribery Hearing

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11.—Burt H. Franklin, an investigator employed by the defense in the murder trial of James B. McNamara, just ended, was held to the superior court today by Justice William P. Young to answer to charges of bribing a juror and attempting to influence the verdict of a jury. The $10,000 cash bond furnished at the time of his arrest by counsel for McNamara was again made surety for Franklin's liberty.

An information by the state attorney, which in California may replace grand jury proceedings, probably will be filed within a week. Assistant District Attorney W. J. Ford said tonight. The prosecution does not seek an early trial.

The name of Clarence S. Darrow, chief of counsel for the McNamaras, was brought into the case twice today by witnesses at the preliminary hearing. George N. Lockwood, a ventriloquist who was taken into custody when Franklin was arrested, and later released, said Franklin told him he would "use Darrow and arrange for the money to be paid."

Robert F. Bain, a juror, who accepted a bribe, told how he came to do so, and added, Franklin told him Darrow had given him the money to use.

Darrow Mentioning Darrow.
Franklin, in court, denied that he ever said anything of the sort. "I never mentioned Darrow's name to these men," he declared. "I owe it to Mr. Darrow to say that much, which is absolute truth."

Precisely Franklin said: "I might be guilty, though I don't for a moment admit that—but I'm not a liar. He refused to elaborate this dictation."

Attorney Darrow flatly denied any complicity in the affair.

"I do not know what words passed between Franklin and Lockwood," he said. "I have had nothing to do with getting to any jurors. Lockwood, I am told, said later in the day that he spoke to Franklin about the big fellow, saying he supposed I was mean, and Franklin replied, 'I did not mean Darrow. I meant Cap. White.' It looks as if Lockwood might have had my name in mind when Franklin was not talking about me."

District Attorney Frederick said that the state does not possess evidence which would warrant including Darrow in the trial.

"What was testified to was pure hearsay," he said. "It is not evidence in court of law. This office in proceeding against men obtains what it believes to be valid evidence."

Have Not Sufficient Evidence.
"Have you such evidence against Mr. Darrow?" he asked.

"We have not," he said. "Then he corrected this to say that they had not sufficient evidence against Darrow."

"The federal grand jury, which has not been in session since last Friday, will go to work again tomorrow. Among the possible witnesses, however, is Howard Taylor, chauffeur for Gen. Harrison Gray Otis at the time the Los Angeles Times was dynamited. General Otis was out of town, but Taylor was here and found the unexpected suit case bomb at the Otis house. He also found footprints—long and slender, in the turf."

Delhi Overrun With Visitors.
The great durbar tomorrow to celebrate the accession of King George as emperor of India, will far outshine the coronation durbar in 1902 when King Edward was proclaimed. There will be a public holiday throughout India, and the royal proclamation will be read in every town and village.

Already King George and Queen Mary have taken part in many functions and have received the homage of the princes. Delhi is overrun with visitors from all lands, and it is expected the magnificent spectacle will be viewed by hundreds of thousands.

In the durbar of 1902 the emperor and empress were represented by the Duke and Duchess of Connaught. About 100 ruling chiefs were in attendance and the visitors were estimated at something less than 200,000. This year the personal attendance of the king-emperor and the queen-empress has attracted vast crowds, while the ruling chiefs have gathered from every quarter of India.

Vast City of Canvas.
The durbar camp is a vast canvas city, covering about 25 square miles. It is lighted by electricity, served by a permanent water supply and provided with excellent roads and a special railway system. Chief of all is the emperor's central camp.

The huge tent in which both the emperor and the queen will be held to sit on the Grand Avenue. This tent is capable of seating 5,000 persons and is decorated in five, white and gold. Behind this is the king's state dining tent, being built with white and gold. This tent will accommodate tomorrow evening. Their majesties private tents are to the right and the viceroys have a similar encampment to the left.

About 150 ruling princes are here; their camps being in close proximity to that of the king. The historic ridge in the evening presents a truly wonderful sight. As far as the eye can reach, twinkling myriads of electric lights, which disclose a picture of white and gold and here and there splashes of color.

Route of Procession.
King George will arrive tomorrow at the center of the great plain about three miles from his camp for the durbar in state procession, and will proceed half way around an enormous banked-up arena, in which will be assembled not less than 80,000 spectators. From there he will go to a smaller amphitheater, accommodating 12,000 persons. These will comprise the Indian chiefs, governors and lieutenant governors, the imperial and provincial councils, with all the leading officials, nobility and gentry of India.

After receiving the homage of the chiefs on a special dais, under a regal purple canopy, their majesties will proceed to a marble dais surrounded by a golden cord and will show themselves in their coronation robes and crowns to the assembled multitude. Twenty thousand troops with heralds and massed bands will surround the dais, lending picturesqueness to the scene. On the return to their camps, their majesties will complete the second half of the circle around the arena and then proceed along the Princes' road through a number of other camps occupied by the Indian princes.

IRON WORKERS ARE AIDING GOVERNMENT
One or More Officials Turn Over Data From Union's
Headquarters

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 11.—That one or more officials of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers are surrendering voluntarily to the government information needed in the investigation of an alleged nationwide "dynamiting conspiracy" against structural iron contractors who maintain the "open shop" was made known tonight in a statement by representatives of the National Ironworkers' association. It was announced that without resistance, being offered letters and records have been conveyed by detectives to the headquarters of the iron workers association in this city to the office of the United States district attorney.

"No promises of immunity to men suspected of complicity in the dynamiting conspiracy have been made by the government," declared Charles W. Miller, the district attorney. "But we shall accept evidence in that direction to be presented to the grand jury when it resumes its sessions about Thursday."

"I have not evidence from the office of the iron workers association," said Detective Robert Foster of the city's police association. "But I will not say who turned it over to me."

Walter Drew, counsel for the iron workers' association, added to Detective Foster's statement that he regretted the state of the investigation should be made public at this time.

Tried to Keep It Quiet.
"We have made every endeavor to keep this situation covered up until the completion of the grand jury's inquiry," he said. "I will not comment on the attitude of the officials of the iron workers' association."

Members of the iron workers' association have suffered from 100 explosions against their property since the association declared for "open shop" in May, 1908. It has been the principal agent in the search for these responsible for the explosions.

In the recent announcement of the iron workers' association's representatives, Herbert S. Harkin, acting secretary of the iron workers' association, flatly denied tonight that any papers had been taken from his office. The iron workers' association and the iron workers' union are now as antagonistic as they have been for the last five years, he said.

"I have entered into no negotiations with the iron workers or with the federal authorities," he said. "I am now seeking immunity, and there would be no reason for me to come through."

The authorities can get anything in this office through the legal means provided, but nothing has been given out or taken by force since the raid on this office last April when John J. McNamara was arrested and most of our records seized."

Wouldn't Remain If He Did.
"You would not turn over papers of the association without the authority of the executive board, or if you did so on your own initiative, you would not remain in this office," would you?" Mr. Harkin was asked.

"Certainly not," he answered. "There is no truth in the report that I have let our records out of my possession."

The records taken from the iron workers' headquarters are to be used, it is said, in the federal grand jury's inquiry into the allegations that groups of men in many cities were implicated with John J. and James B. McNamara in dynamiting "predators."

IT'S NOT ONLY PEOPLE BARRED RUSSIA DISCRIMINATES AGAINST ORDERS

Priests, Ministers and Missionaries Also Feel Czar's Hand, Say Speakers

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Those who appeared today before the house committee on foreign affairs, urging abrogation of the 1832 treaty between the United States and Russia, declared that the czar's alleged discriminations against Americans had not been confined to Jews alone but included Catholic priests, Protestant ministers and American missionaries.

Louis Marshall of New York, counsel for the Jews, who appeared, cited the case of Bishop Hoban of San Francisco, who he said, was denied a two-day's sojourn in Russia although armed with a passport from the state department. He said Oscar Hammerstein, the American impresario, was not allowed to enter Russia to engage talent.

Jacob Schiff, the New York banker, showed a letter received from Elhan Root, when the latter was secretary of state, saying no satisfaction could be obtained from Russia.

Oscar Strauss, ambassador to Turkey and a member of the Roosevelt cabinet, denied any personal knowledge that American interests were being influenced by the state department in its treatment of the question.

Number of Speakers.
Samuel Dorf, presenting Brith Abraham, Rabbi Solomon Foster of Cincinnati, secretary of the American Jewish association, William G. McAdoo, chairman, and Bernard Nodan, secretary, National Citizens' association, Abraham I. Elkus, a regent of New York State university, and Leon Sandover, representing the Jewish National Fraternal congress, were speakers. The committee will continue tomorrow.

Mayor Sulzberger of Philadelphia sarcastically referred to the Russian legislative system. He said the only loss to the United States by the abrogation of the treaty might be the 1 per cent of American foreign commerce.

Louis Marshall said the conditions in Russia were worse than ever before, and that Jews could not be persecuted more.

Senator Culberson and others will be heard by the senate committee on foreign relations Wednesday in support of the Culberson resolution to abrogate the treaty.

HASTENING PARK PROJECT
DENVER, Dec. 11.—Six hundred petitions, aiming to hasten active work on the foothills park project, were put into circulation today by members of the city board of commerce, real estate exchange and Denver Motor club.

The petitions ask that the city charter be amended so as to empower the park commission to acquire property for the proposed park, and authorizing that body to impose a special tax levy for five years to pay for such purchases.

Eight thousand signatures are necessary in order to bring the proposed amendment before the people at an election.

GERMANY PAYS HIGH RATES
FOR SHORT MONEY LOANS
Amounts Borrowed at 5 1/2 to 6 Per Cent From American Interests, Run Into Millions of Dollars

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—A feature of the money market today was the heavy borrowing of German banking interests at 5 1/2 to 6 per cent for "one-year" loans. The amount placed at these rates ran into the millions of dollars, and was accepted as public evidence of Germany's pressing needs. Banking circles consider it not improbable that the demand will continue for the remainder of the week and it is predicted that a higher rate would be established.

BOTH PARTIES CONFIDENT ON EVE ARIZONA ELECTION

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 11.—Final rallies tonight in all of the larger cities of the territory brought to an end Arizona's election campaign. Both Republicans and Democrats are claiming everything, the former expressing confidence in spite of a normal Democratic majority and the action of President Taft in making elimination of the judiciary recall from the constitution a prerequisite to statehood.

The eliminating will be done in the election tomorrow, but plans are already being made to reestablish the recall as soon as the territory assumes the sovereignty of a state.

According to the best information obtainable, the contest will be close between George W. P. Hunt, Democrat, and Edward W. Wells, Republican, for governor. The election of Mark Smith, former Democratic member of congress, as one of the United States senators, regarded as almost certain, while a close contest is expected between Henry F. Ashurst, Democrat, and Ralph Cameron, Republican, for the other seat. Hoyt A. Smith is the Republican ticket with Cameron as candidate for United States senator.

UNEXPECTED HOSTILITIES
Opposition to Colonel New as Head Subcommittee Arrangements Develops

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Hostilities of an unexpected character and temp. an unlooked for quarter developed today among members of the Republican national committee and other prominent party leaders who are here in connection with the meeting tomorrow to fix the time and place for the presidential nominating convention next summer.

Opposition to Col. New as head of the subcommittee on arrangements for the convention developed today.

The situation, however, cleared considerably later in the evening. At the president's dinner to the committee men there was no open discussion of politics. But it became known immediately after the dinner had adjourned that Secretary Hilges and other supporters of President Taft had won a complete victory and that Colonel New undoubtedly would head the subcommittee on arrangements.

It also was evident that the Taft forces would control the entire membership of the subcommittee and that the slate for the subcommittee of five included, in addition to Colonel New, National Committeemen Mulvane of Kansas, Vories of Ohio, Murphy of New Jersey and Williams of Oregon. All of these men are known to be friendly to President Taft. Committeemen N. C. Duncan of North Carolina may be added as a sixth member of the subcommittee.

Talking Up Col. Roosevelt.
Only less interesting than the controversy over the control of the subcommittee in charge of the convention was the open exploitation through the day of Colonel Roosevelt as a possible candidate for the presidential nomination.

The advocates of Roosevelt's nomination based their arguments in his belief upon the fact that at no time has President announced that he would not accept the nomination if it was tendered him.

It was recognized that he would not openly become a candidate, they said, but they were busy sounding members of the national committee as to their sentiment in regard to "having the nomination upon the column."

There were many who connected the open advocacy of Roosevelt's candidacy with the opposition to naming a committee of arrangements dominated by administration men.

The Roosevelt enthusiasts frankly said their hope lay in working up a demand for Colonel Roosevelt to be expressed in the convention itself.

The most sensational feature of the day's skirmishing was the fact that Secretary Hilges, who is the active leader of the Taft forces in the campaign for re-nomination, and Postmaster General Hitchcock, who managed the president's campaign three years ago, seemingly were arrayed against each other. Usually Mr. Hitchcock is said to be entirely at the reports at rest.

No Friction, He Says.
Mr. Hitchcock's statement follows: "Statements indicating that there is friction between Mr. Hilges and myself are absolutely unfounded. My resignation as chairman of the national committee was tendered in good faith on the day that it was confirmed as postmaster general, and from that time to this I have refrained from participation in the affairs of the committee. I have all that I can do at present to look after the business of my department and do not wish to be (Continued on Page Two.)

INDEPENDENT STEEL MEN AID COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Independent steel manufacturers today asked the house "trust" committee investigating complaints that the freight rates charged by railroads owned by the United States Steel corporation discriminated in favor of that concern.

E. C. Baird, freight traffic manager of the Bessemer & Lake Erie railroad, and George D. Dixon, freight traffic manager of the Pennsylvania railroad, were witnesses.

Baird testified that Charles M. Schwab, president of the Bethlehem Steel company, had complained against discriminatory rates and had threatened to build a terminal railroad to overcome shipping disadvantages. Mr. Baird testified that in the Pittsburgh district the rates were fixed in conference.

Mr. Dixon said the Cambria Steel company, the Bethlehem company and others had complained of the distortion of the freight rates in the district.

MRS. JACK LOSES SUIT TO REGAIN HIGH DRIVE CLAIM

A verdict favorable to Mrs. Josephine E. Smith was returned by a jury in the district court yesterday, in the suit brought against her by Mrs. Ellen E. Jack, over the possession of a claim on the High drive. Judge W. S. Morris has given the attorneys for Mrs. Jack 15 days in which to ask for a new trial.

The two women are well known in the Pike's Peak region. In 1904, Mrs. Jack, better known as Captain Jack, located a claim on the High drive, naming it Mrs. No. 1. After doing considerable assessment work, she was forced to borrow $150 from Mrs. Smith, giving in return a trust deed for the claim. In 1908 Mrs. Smith claims that she was forced to foreclose.

In August, 1910, Mrs. Jack relocated the claim, saying that Mrs. Smith had not done $100 worth of improvement and had thereby lost the title. Mrs. Smith asserted that Mrs. Jack jumped the claim and drove off her employees at the point of a gun. The question before the jury, after hearing the evidence, was to determine the amount of assessment work done by Mrs. Smith in the year before Mrs. Jack relocated.

It is understood that the attorneys for Mrs. Jack, including J. K. Vanatta and James A. Orr, will ask for a new trial or will take an appeal. Henry Trowbridge, attorney, represented Mrs. Smith.

Just Try a 10 Cent Box of Cascarets

How do you feel tonight? Are you tired, nervous, or a bit out of order?

Put aside just once the salt, cathartic pills, castor oil or purgative waters which merely force a passage through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify these drainage or alimentary organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your inside organs pure and fresh with Cascarets, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestine and system. Cascarets tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never grip, sicken and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have headache, biliousness, coated tongue, indigestion, sour stomach or constipated bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Call for them to take them.

NO INCREASE IN ORE RATE

President Milliken Makes Statement Concerning Suspension of the U. S. R. & R. Company.

Statements were made by John T. Milliken, president of the Golden Cycle Mining company, yesterday afternoon, to the effect that the new roster for the company's mill will be installed within the immediate future. It is to cost approximately $20,000, and its installation is being made necessary by the suspension of work in the United States Reduction and Refining company. Mr. Milliken stated, further, that his company would need no more than three additional employees in order to handle the increased work, and that the men who are thrown out of employment by the suspension of the U. S. R. & R. company will have to look elsewhere for work.

The Golden Cycle company will handle all of the U. S. R. & R. company's ore under their existing contracts. Ore which is not now under contract will be treated at the open rates of the Portland company. Mr. Milliken is here in order to attend the banquet which the company is to give to the shippers in Cripple Creek tonight.

ONE YEAR IN JAIL FOR MAN WHO CARRIED GUN

If Sam Snyder, Colorado City character, had not been carrying a revolver and a pistol to the George H. Hall, sheriff, and Alex Tawa, chief of police of Colorado City, he might not be sitting in the county jail. The officers, started to arrest Snyder and his wife, yesterday morning, on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. Snyder was brought to this city last night and will be held in the undertaking rooms of Fleming & Patterson. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

EACH MEMBER URGED TO GET A NEW ONE

Campaign by Chamber of Commerce to Increase Enrollment to 1,000 by January 1, 1912

In a personal letter to each individual member, the membership committee of the Chamber of Commerce strongly urges that everyone get one new member before January 1, 1912, and efforts are being made to attain a total enrollment of 1,000 before that date.

Accompanying the following letter are an application blank and a list of all members December 1, 1911, and the names of nonmembers may easily be called to mind.

The Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce is completing its first year. That more effective work has been done during this year than ever before is conceded. This has been due, in a large measure, to the loyal and united support given at all times by the membership.

Now that the Chamber of Commerce is housed in its new quarters in the Burns theater building, it is better equipped than ever before to carry forward its work for the advancement and advertisement of Colorado Springs and the Pike's Peak region.

It needs a larger membership. This request is being made of every member.

Get one new member before January 1, 1912.

If you will do your part, the Chamber of Commerce can start the New Year with 1,000 members, and with its usefulness largely increased. Will you do it? Enclosed is a list of the membership. An examination will bring to mind the names of one or more nonmembers whom you can induce to join. The secretary also has on file a list of prospects which he will be glad to have you examine.

Don't put this off, thinking that the "other fellow" will do it. This is a responsibility resting upon you.

A. W. HENDERSON, Secretary.

COUNTY AIDS SUFFERERS

Commissioners Distribute Necessaries Among Starving Citizens in Eastern Part of County

"The county can take care of its destitute people," said Harry Hutchinson, county commissioner, yesterday, after his return from Calhan, where he distributed clothing contributed by Colorado Springs citizens.

"I have made a thorough investigation of the situation," Mr. Hutchinson continued, "and am pleased to say that El Paso county will not have to go elsewhere for money. The clothing came in handy and will help us greatly in caring for the farmers in the eastern part of the county."

ENTERTAINING PROGRAM GIVEN BY MUSICAL CLUB

A notably fine program was presented yesterday afternoon at the recital of the Colorado Springs Musical club given in the assembly room at the Acadia hotel. Miss Blapham played the opening piano number, Moment Musical—Mozzowski; Mrs. Tucker sang the beautiful song cycle, "A Love of Damascus." Gray Hair Makes You Look Old

Use Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and Your Gray Hair Will Quickly Vanish.

Gray hair is a mark of age, and nothing that can be said as to its beauty will offset the disadvantages of this mark of age set upon your brow.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy darkens the hair and restores it to its youthful beauty. Our grandmothers and their grandmothers before them used sage and sulphur for darkening their hair. Nothing has ever been found more effective for this purpose than these two time-honored remedies, but Wyeth, a modern chemist, has combined the two with other ingredients, which makes a delightful dressing for the hair, and which not only removes every trace of dandruff but promotes the growth of the hair. It also stops the hair from falling out, and makes it beautiful.

All druggists are authorized to refund the money if it fails to do exactly as represented.

Don't neglect your hair and don't resort to old-time hair dyes. Get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist today, and notice the difference in your hair after a few days use.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agent, Robinson Drug Co., 102 E. Pike's Peak avenue.

piano; Sonata, Op. 20, Fante, for violin and piano was given by Mrs. Howe and Mrs. Faust; the tenor recitative and aria from "Samson," Handel was sung by Dr. Richards, with Miss Lennox at the piano.

The numbers finely interpreted by the Colorado Springs Musical club orchestra created much enthusiasm as the room was crowded with music lovers. The selections were: (a) overture to "Romeo and Juliet," (b) Nocturne from "Moussorgsky," (c) "Le Fete de Seville," Tavan-Marchetti.

Announcement was made that an American Indian "Music Talk" would be given by Charles Wakefield Cadman, composer-pianist, assisted by Gertrude Handler, contralto, Monday evening, December 18, in the First M. E. church, complimentary to the members of the Musical club. Mr. Cadman is recognized as an authority on Indian music.

A special invitation was extended to the members of the club and their friends to attend the song recital to be given this evening in Fine Arts Recital hall by Miss Vera McLaughlin, soprano, pupil of Miss Viola Paulus. Those assisting will be Robert Berryhill, piano; Miss Mabel Harlan, violin; and Miss Eleanor Thomas, accompanist.

INVITES WRITERS TO GIVE FACTS ON TICKET SCALPING

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—The National commission issued a statement tonight inviting the public to prove if there was any collusion between the New York National league club or any of its officials and ticket scalpers in the world's series last October.

So far, Chairman August Herrmann said, the commission has spent $1,600 looking for evidence and was prepared to spend more.

This was one of the several matters that kept the commission for six hours behind closed doors. Another matter discussed was gambling in baseball pools, upon which the members placed a ban. To correct this evil, the commission adopted a resolution recommending to the National and American leagues that they do all in their power to end that custom. It was also announced that the commission will consult with the postoffice authorities and proper officials to secure their cooperation to that end, it having been reported to the commission that several newspapers and periodicals carried the pools, making it seem a lottery.

The commission reported that it had referred to President Lynch of the National league and President Johnson of the American league the request of the Eastern league and Pacific league and of the American association for higher ratings. Each major league will consider the question at its meeting tomorrow.

The commission will receive these league reports at the annual meeting in Cincinnati January 8, and dispose of the matter then. Incidentally, the Eastern league meeting, a few blocks away, voted to change its name to the International league.

In length of discussion the world's series ticket scandal overwhelmed every other topic before the National commission. When adjournment was taken Chairman Herrmann threw open the doors to newspaper men and made an oral statement:

"Insofar as the investigation of the

DOUBLE UMPIRE PLAN FOR PACIFIC LEAGUE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—The double umpire system will prevail in the Pacific Coast league next season. This was decided by the league directors, who voted unanimously for the measure after spending an hour or two in discussion. Throughout all of last season there was complaint as to the umpiring, and from every city on the circuit came the demand of the fans for two umpires, one to judge balls and strikes and the other the bases.

President Baum was one of the advocates of the double system, and such discussion as resulted from his suggestion was purely of a business nature. When the vote was at last called for, it met with an enthusiastic chorus of "aye's."

Incidentally, President Baum started off his administration of the league by winning the admiration of all the directors, who were loud tonight in their praises of the new executive. Never in league history, it was said, had so much been accomplished in so short a space of time. This was due in large measure to the new president's fairness, forcefulness and spirit of initiative.

In the two sessions of Wednesday night and today, the umpire question was settled, the opening and closing dates of the league season fixed, the schedule practically determined, vigorous action begun toward the suppression of baseball gambling in every form in all of the league cities, and a score of minor things done which in the past have been neglected until the eleventh hour or passed completely over without serious consideration.

PRES. FOGEL FAVORS GEORGE STALLINGS

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11.—President Fogel of the Phillies today declared that he had in view four men, any one of whom he may ask to become manager of the Phillies in place of Charles Doherty, whom Fogel says never can manage the club again while he is connected with it.

The most likely man mentioned by Fogel and the one he appears to favor is George Stallings, manager of the Buffalo Eastern league club, and who at one time managed the New York Yankees. Two of the others are Hans Lohr and Otto Knabo of the Phillies and the fourth is some unknown player or Fogel expects to get in a trade.

Fogel denies that he has received any offer from Garry Herrmann of the Reds, offering McLean in exchange for Doherty. Fogel says he would not take McLean as a gift, but at that time he didn't know anything about the $10,000 Herrmann offers to throw in with McLean. Fogel still insists he wants players, not money, to Doherty.

At present Stallings looks like the best bet for manager of the Phillies.

GOOD, HONEST, SQUARE-DEAL

Medicines like those of Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, warrant their makers in printing their every ingredient, which they do, upon their outside wrappers, verifying the correctness of the same under oath. This open publicity places these medicines in a class all by themselves. Furthermore, it warrants physicians in prescribing them largely as they do in their worst cases.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Is a most potent alterative or blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the nasal passages, throat, bronchial tubes, etc., and cures a large per cent. of catarrhal cases whether the disease affects the nose, throat, the throat, larynx, bronchitis, stomach (as catarrhal dyspepsia), liver, bowels (as mucous diarrhoea), or other organs.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is advised for the cure of one class of diseases only—those peculiar weaknesses, derangements and irregularities peculiar to women. It is a powerful yet gently acting invigorating tonic and nerve.

For a weak, worn out, over-worked woman—no matter what has caused the break-down, "Favorite Prescription" will be the most effective in building up the strength, regulating the womanly functions, subduing pain and bringing back a healthy, vigorous condition of the whole system.

A book of particulars wraps each bottle giving the formulae of both medicines and quoting what scores of eminent medical authors, whose works are consulted by physicians of all the schools of practice as guides in prescribing, say of each ingredient "turing into these medicines."

Both medicines are non-alcoholic, non-secret, and contain no harmful habit-forming drugs, being composed of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American, medicinal, forest plants. They are both sold by dealers in medicine. You can't afford to neglect a malady for one of these medicines of known composition, any secret remedy. Don't do it.
